

Algebra 1 G/T chapter 1, part 1

Sinchiguano Cesar

February 26, 2019

1 Critical Thinking Questions(something)(20pts)

Were always looking for ways to get our kids to think more deeply. Critical thinking skills are really important. So, weve rounded up all of the best critical thinking questions to help you get your students to the next level.

1. Who caused harm?
2. Who was the most important character?
3. Who is responsible?
4. Who should have won?
5. Who would benefit?
6. Who would be affected by this?

2 Critical Thinking Questions That Start With What

Now that youve got a big, long list of critical thinking questions to ask your students, are you looking for more information on teaching critical thinking skills? Check out this article: 10 Tips for Teaching Kids to Be Awesome Critical Thinkers Plus, get advice from other teachers by joining our Facebook group: WeAreTeachers Helpline.

1. What would it be like if ?
2. Who was the most important character?
3. What could happen if ?
4. Who should have won?
5. Who would benefit?
6. What is that characters motive?

3 Critical Thinking Questions That Start With When

Had I known that bathroom breaks would be few and far between, I would have started doing Kegel exercises in seventh grade. Bladder training 101 would be comprised of various activities to aid in the art of holding it in. Students in this course would master the skills of learning how to survive on minimal liquids throughout the day, the art of ignoring the pain, and pee dances guaranteed to distract you from that nagging feeling that you might wet your pants at any given moment.

1. When did the story change?

2. When is this (un)acceptable?
3. When does this become a problem?
4. When will we be able to tell if it worked?
5. When is it time to stop?